Arrest of Alleged Ku-Klux-Klan--Judicial War--Arrest of Judge Waldron by Order of Judge Hunter.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MEMPHIS, April 7.—The police made a descent on Ferguson's Hall on Beale street, Monday night, and captured some twenty persons, mostly boys, on a charge of being "Ku-Klux-Klan." On the person of one was found a document purporting to be the constitution of the order, putting forth that the object was to protect people in the South from the bands of robbers and murderers now preying on them even to the last resort, assassination, and pledging themselves to allow nothing to divert them from this object. Among the captures were a lot of masks and a skull. A boy claimed they were a number of members of the Pride of the South Base Ball Club, had no connection with the Klan, and knew nothing of the papers found; that it was a plot against them. They were then taken to the Southern station house, and kept till two o'clock this morning, when they were all unconditionally released.

Judge Waldron, of the Municipal Court, was arrested on an attachment issued by Judge Hunter, of the Criminal Court, last night, for unlawfuliy interfering with his Court in bringing from jail for trial Messrs. Gallaway & Campbell, of the Avalanche, imprisoned by Judge Hunter for contempt. Judge Waldron gave bonds for his appearance on the 13th, to answer the charge. It is said he will in turn arrest Hunter for his action.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 7, 1868.

SENATE.

The CHAIR laid before the Senate a memorial of the Legislature of Montana, praying for a grant of land for educational and agricultural purposes. Referred.

Mr. JOHNSON presented the petition of two or three thousand colored citizens of South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, asking the Government to aid them in emigrating to Liberia. He said that some four thousand more had authorized their signatures, and the petition set forth they could not hope to overcome the social inequality inseparable from their condition, and that they therefore desired to go to a republic of their own race, fairly established and promising great prosperty and all the advantages of civilization, in a suitable climate. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

On motion of Mr. HOWE, to-morrow, after one o'clock, was set apart for the consideration of bills reported from the Committee on Claims.

Mr. TRUMBULL, from the Committee on Judiciary, offered an amendment to the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation Bill. Referred to Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. RAMSEY offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Pensions to bring in a bill to so amend the pension laws that the marriage of a deceased soldier's widow shall no longer work a forfeiture of her pension, which was adopted.

Mr. HARLAN called up the bill in relation to the charter of the city of Washington.

Mr. SUMNER offered an amendment, as an additional section, making it the duty of the Board of Aldermen and Councilmen to meet in joint Convention on the first of the month following its passage, and select by ballot all officers now appointed by the Mayor, who are to hold office one year.

Mr. JOHNSON inquired the object of the amendment.

Mr. SUMNER replied by reading the resolutions adopted by the Common Council. He said it was well known that the action of the Mayor was hostile to colored men. He hoped to have the support of the Senator from Maryland.

Mr. JOHNSON opposed giving colored men offices for which they were incompetent.

Mr. DAVIS would vote for no proposition to place negroes over white men.

After further discussion the proviso to allow the Convention to abolish certain offices and decrease salaries, was stricken out.

Several Senators condemned it as authorizing the exercise of legislative functions by the Convention.

Mr. BUCKALEW moved to strike out the authorization of the Common Council and Mayor to choose a Treasurer on joint ballot. Lost.

Mr. SUMNER'S amendment was agreed to—29 to 16.

Mr. SHERMAN offered an amendment allowing the Common Council to provide for paving, grading, planting, &c., streets by an assessment on adjacent property. Rejected.

The Senate went into Executive session at 4.30 and soon after adjourned.

VIRGINIA.

The New Governor Sworn In.

RICHMOND, April 7.—Hon. H. H. Wells, of Alexandria, this morning took the oath of office as Governor of Virginia, and entered upon the duties of the office.

After Governor Wells had taken the oath of office to-day, he accepted an invitation to visit the Convention. Judge Underwood introduced him and endorsed his political views. Governor Wells made a short address. He said for the short time he would hold office he would endeavor to promote the prosperity of all the peopie and try and promote harmony in the Republican party, as the only organization through which that prosperity could ever come.

A resolution offered by a colored member prohibiting the Legislature from establishing any system of separate schools for the two races was discussed all day. The black delegates urged it with heat, one or two threatening to oppose the adoption of the constitution if this was not incorporated.

—At the Cincinnati municipal election on Monday the vote polled was 23,627, against 28,804 at the Gubernatorial election last fall. The Republicans elected the Judge of the Superior Court, Clerk of the Police Court, Trustees of Water Works, and Director of City Infirmary. The Democrats elected the City Commissioners and Wharf Master. The highest Republican majority was one thousand and ninety-seven, and the lowest thirty-seven, and the Democratic majorities were one hundred and eighty-seven, and two hundred and eighty. The two Democrats elect were supported by the Workingmen's party. The Workingmen's ticket received an average vote of about six hundred. The Republican majority in the city last October was two thousand one hundred and thirty-eight.

—Lewis V. Bogy, a prominent Democrat of St. Louis, and late Commissioner of Indian Affairs, in a letter responding to an invitation to address the Democracy of Calloway county, advocates the nomination of General Frank P. Blair, Jr., for President, and John F. Hoffman, of New York, for Vice President. Mr. Bogy argues that as the Radicals will rely upon the regular army for a candidate, the Democracy must look to the volunteer force, not only for a leader but for assistance in combatting Radicalism in the coming election. He also urges the same policy to be carried out in Missouri, and that men identified with the army, or known supporters of the war, be nominated for State officers.

—Advices from Gaudaloupe to the 10th ult.' state that the sea suddenly overflowed Porte Monte, and one English and three French vessels were driven on the rocks and broken to pieces. Several other vessels were washed ashore and greatly damaged.

NEW ORLEANS, April 7.—An order issued some days ago by Chief of Police Williamson to one of his Lieutenants, relative to the disposition of the police force, was suspended by Mayor Heath. Williamson protested in a caustic letter, closing as follows: "If those who are personally interested in the great political contest now pending desire to manipulate a portion or all of the police force of this city for their own purposes, they will find an insurmountable obstacle in their way in the determination of this office to confine the operations of the police force to its legitimate functions, and it is believed that not only the law but the will of the people will sustain this action." Mayor Heath preferred a charge of disobedience of orders, insolence to his superior officer, and conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman.

At an extra meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners on Saturday evening, a summons was issued to Williamson to answer on the 9th of April, and he was suspended from exercising the duties of his office until further orders.

Gen Buchanan has set aside this suspension and ordered Williamson to continue in the discharge of the duties of Chief of Police, until further orders from headquarters 5th Military District.

Both Heath and Williamson were appointed by Gen. Sheridan.

At the Democratic Parochial Convention, on Saturday night, a full parish and municipal ticket was nominated and resolutions adopted requesting the State Central Committee again to place before the people nominees for State offices lately retired by the Committee, and to fill vacancies from declension and other causes; and also a resolution requiring all candidates to pledge themselves to oppose the Constitution.

Assassination of D'Arcy McGee--The Assassin Unknown--Great Excitement--Fenian Outbreak Imminent.

OTTAWA, April 7.—At half-past two o'clock this morning D'Arcy McGee was shot dead by an unknown assassin as he was entering the house where he lodged, on Sparks street. The ball passed through Mr. McGee's head and lodged in the door which he opened. A son of the landlady came up soon after and found the body on the pavement. He saw no person in the neighborhood, and heard no footsteps.

The assassin must have been behind the fence of a vacant let opposite, or made a very hasty retreat. McGee had just left the Parliament House. The brains protruded and the sidewalk was covered with blood, indicating that the weapon was held close to the head. There are no traces of the assassin.

Another dispatch says: The supposed assassin of McGee is from New York. Some say the assassination was the work of Fenians.

An Ottawa special says the excitement is ncreasing. A private meeting of the Ministers was held, in connection with the eading members of the two Houses. It is lintimated that facts have been presented to them showing the existence of a secret society of desperadoes, sworn to summarily put out of the way all members of Parliament broadly anti-Fenian in sentiment. Information is also in the possession of members that a grand Fenian outbreak throughout the Dominion is imminent. In this, it is stated, in addition to Fenians, there will be engaged many Canadians who are dissatisfied with the Government on general grounds.

It has been ascertained by the authorities that the murderer of McGee is a New York Fenian, who is said to have been detailed by the secret society for the purpose, the duty having been decided by drawing lots.

It is rumored that a French revolutionary society in the lower province is acting in concert with the Fenians.

Threats of retaliation upon all known Fenians are openly made by members of the British party, and it is feared that other assassinations will follow.

LATER PARTICULARS—LARGE REWARDS OFFERED FOR THE ASSASSIN.

OTTAWA, April 7.—The assassination of Hon. Thomas D'Arcy McGee excites universal horror here and throughout the country. The authorities have taken every means in their power to secure the murderers, and a number of arrests have been made, but as yet no definite clue has been obtained. An inquest was opened at ten o'clock this morning, but adjourned, without taking evidence, until seven this evening. The jurymen, in the meantime, attended the House of Commons in a body to hear eulogies on the deceased. The government of Canada offer $5,000, the government of Ontario and Quebec $5,000 and the Mayor of Ottawa $5,000 reward for the apprehension of the guilty parties. The authorities at all points have been directed to use their best diligence in hunting up the murderer and to arrest all suspicious persons. Business is almost entirely suspended and flags are flying at half-mast. Preparations are making for the removal of the body to Montreal to-morrow. All the members of the Cabinet are taking deep interest in the matter. Great crowds are in the streets, and expressions of sympathy with the deceased are loud and frequent.

In the House, last night, a couple of hours before the assassination, Mr. McGee delivered a speech on the position of Nova Scotia. It is said to have been the most eloquent effort of his whole life.

The House of Commons met at three o'clock to-day. On the opening of the doors Sir John A. MacDonald rose, and, on moving adjournment for Easter recess, alluded to the recent dreadful assassination, by which a member of the House had been cut down in the zeneth of his reputation. Sir John A. MacDonald's voice was scarcely audible from emotion, as he warmly eulogized the deceased, and spoke of the legacy left by him to his country in his widow and family. Mr. M'Kenzie followed in a very eloquent address, in which he paid a high tribute to the deceased. Hon. Mr. Cartier also paid a hearty and eloquent tribute to the deceased statesman. A number of other members addressed the house in the same strain. An adjournment then took place at four o'clock until Thursday. The galleries were densely thronged, and members and spectators alike were frequently affected to tears.

Result of the City Election.

Of twelve Aldermen the Democrats have elected six, Radicals five, tied one. On the general ticket, for Street Railroad Commissioner the Democrats elected their candidate by from two to three hundred majority. The Park extension is defeated, and the City Hall carried. The question of the city guaranteeing four million dollars in bridge bonds will not be voted on till the next general election. Common Pleas—Judge Stowe.

The first case taken up was that of Hill, Patterson & Co. vs. Patrick McCartin. This was an action on a promissory note. Verdict for amount of note with interest, $245 17. Motion and reasons for new trial on part of defendant.

The next case taken up was that of Louis Bohm vs. John Will. This was a sci fa on a mechanic's lien, on property in Bloomfield. On trial.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HAVANA, April 7.—The sugar market is quiet and offers are made at 7¼ reals and less for No. 12, D S. Exchange on United States at 27¼a28 discount. A large quantity of American flour which was shipped from New York to Porto Rico has arrived, having been unsaleable at the latter point. Raining all day.

EPHEMERIS.

—Louisville has two Fenian circles.

—Theatricals are running low in New Orleans.

—The Admiral has been to Vesuvius and Pompeii.

—There is said not to be a theatre in running order in Tennessee.

—Friday night is the fashionable one for theatre-going in Louisville.

—Yuba Dam is the name of a fine new yacht down near Louisville.

—Watteau fans are coming in again. Boston belles have adopted them.

—Short and very sweet. A penny stick of candy and Mr. D'Israeli's premiership.

—We notice a large number of Pittsburgh names in the Philadelphia hotel lists.

—Somebody says that Sandwich Islanders are going to erect a monument to Capt. Cook.

—Cock-fighting and prize-fighting are flourishing in New Jersey; also in Kentucky.

—A new Episcopal Church was consecrated last week, in Boston, by Bishop Eastburn.

—Generals Grant and Sherman are both summoned for the defense in the Impeachment trial.

—There were 101 accidents on the New Jersey railways last year, 61 of which terminated fatally.

—An insane Irishman, calling himself Rev. Mr. Hennessey, was arrested at Rock Island on Sunday.

—Brignoli is still allowing his sailor to dream in Boston. La Grange, Susini and Stella Bonheur are with him.

—St. James Hotel, in Boston, is to be opened in a few days. Hubites are very proud of their new caravansery.

—Basil E. O. says that the first Physician in history was Job, and yet he had more patience than any of his successors.

—We have another Daniel somewhere amongst us. He says "Impeachment will be a good thing if it turns out well."

—Lopez says his situation is not desperate. Pedro says it is. Now, who knows best? is the important item of knowledge wanted.

—Basil E. O. has perverted a well known English couplet thus:

"Died, the laundress of the Rev. Henry Clay Dean; Verdict—Ennui—so little linen to make clean."

—Rev. Henry D. Moore, late pastor of Plymouth Congregational Church in this city, is fast becoming the popular preacher of Cincinnati.

—"I am so much interested in my hen-ery," said a fowl loving damsel. "Oh!" answered her friend, "I always thought his name was Melchisedech."

—Patti, it is said, has earned $130,000 this season in Paris. Patti becomes more and more of a catch, and it is rumored that several bass bawlers are after her.

—An exchange terminates an obituary thus: "The deceased was deservedly respected by all who knew him, having accumulated considerable property."

—Collector Jones, of Cleveland, received on April 4th the following telegram:

"Tax on coal oil 10 cents since April 1st.
GEORGE PARNELL, Deputy Com."

—A company of Englishmen are in Grundy county, Tennessee, looking at the mountain lands, with the intention of settling in that district and growing grapes.

—A grand military drama, with two hundred and fifty performers and gorgeous scenic display, is to be given in the Cleveland Rink to-night. Queer place for theatricals.

—Englishmen are congratulating themselves that Prince Leopold is so delicate he will never be able to live as fast or spend as much money as his brothers of Wales and Edinburg.

—One hundred and fifty thousand dollars are being expended in the erection of permanent barracks at Atlanta, Georgia. The apartments of line and field officers and men are separate.

—An ancient maiden, named Olive S. Floyd, died in Boston on the last day of last month. She was just eighty years old, and had lived as servant in one family for sixty-five years.

—The New Orleans Republican still advocates the claims of Hon. Edward H. Durell for the Vice Presidency. Henry C. Warmoth is the Republican candidate for Governor of Louisiana.

—Two young men were recently drowned at Red Wing, Minn., while returning from a visit to the floating abode of some women of tarnished fame, which was moored on the opposite side of the river.

—The mortality among children is said to be quite unprecedented in San Francisco this spring. The prospects for the immediate and tremendous increase of the population of that town are thus dashed to the ground.

—A Philadelphia paper advises its readers to go early to hear the new organ at the Cathedral on Easter morning, as the crowd will be suffocating. We should consider that an excellent reason for not going at all.

—Longfellow has heard Dickens read fifteen times in Boston. The Post says that "The poet of America, is an enthusiastic admirer of the novelist of England; albeit the two are as different as merit and unalloyed assurance.

—The West Jersey Press says that the fishing season is approaching, and that the fishermen are all ready for it, while their skiffs and nets are looking as bright and neat as if there was no storm and salt water to deprive them of their freshness.

—On Friday a squad of armed men from Georgia broke open the jail at Cleveland, East Tennessee, and took out six of the prisoners, furnished them with palfreys and all rode off together. Kuk Klux and jail birds, being of a feather, flock well together.

—An Englishman started a new sensation in Paris. He tried to send himself to London by mail. He was weighed and paid the postage, some seventeen hundred dollars, but the clerks refused to seal and stamp him, and he was sent home as an insane man.

—A church made out of rags, capable of seating one thousand persons, and elaborately ornate in the Grecian style exists at Bergen, Prussia. The rags are in the form of papier mache, rendered water proof by a solution of vitrol, lime water and white of eggs.

—On Monday morning, the cadets of the Pennsylvania Military Academy at Chester, amused themselves by parading through the streets of Philadelphia, and holding dress parade in front of the State house. After this they were dismissed for the Easter vacation.

—Last Tuesday was the twentieth anniversary of the birth of spiritualism, which took place at Rochester under the auspices of the Fox sisters, who now denounce their own offspring. In spite of this, however, there are said to be 6,533,000 so-called spiritualists in the country.

—Organdies with huge figures of bowers (neither right nor left) forest trees and shrubbery, such as were introduced last year, are to be very much worn during the coming summer. Pongas lined with delicately tinted silk are to be more popular than parasols, and much more useful.

—The concrete pavement is losing friends in Philadelphia, and the Nicolson is gaining them. That pavement would be popular here too if it had not been laid so as to give out this winter, on Wood street. Hollows are almost as plenty, if not as deep, in the Wood street pavement as in the Fifth street mud hole.

—A young man who ran away from his home in Williamson county, Tenn., ten years ago, when he was a boy, has just come back. He has been to India, China, South America and Australia; has been shipwrecked three times and is now rich in this world's goods. As the young gentleman wishes, if possible, to evade the rush of juvenile book writers, we shall not publish his name.

—A Louisville paper, casting aside all political considerations, thus appeals to the masses: "Is there any mechanic in the city who will not give a vote for that ingenious plow-maker Tom Brinley? Is there any farmer who has used his fine plows who will not vote for him for Police Commissioner?" What plows and police have to do with each other, we do not know, and the Democrat forgot to say.

—As every one knows, the Canal Bank in New Orleans was recently robbed of some $50,000. On the first inst., the Picayune got off a story about two detectives who recovered all the money through a peculiar tack in one of the shoes of the robber. Well told, and on any other day, the thing would probably have been swallowed, but as it was all fool's day, and as the narrator was not up to his work, nobody believed it.

—Although the English papers derided the American people heartily for electing Mr. Morrissey to Congress, they, themselves, furnished us with a precedent. When Mr. Gulley, who was an ex-pugilist, was chosen member for Pontefract, Gilbert A'Becket, the humorist, said "Should any opposition be manifested in the House of Commons to Mr. Gulley it is very probable the noes (nose) will have it."

—Years ago we heard a well known connoisseur of wines and things pertaining thereunto, declare that in all the world there was no better place for grape culture than Georgia, and that some day the best wines in the world would be raised there. At present there is an excellent opportunity of getting the pick of lands in that State very cheap. The total abstinence movement has and always has had failure on the face of it. Good and cheap wines are the only things that are going to prove effectual in decreasing drunkenness and the use of whiskey; so by all means, plant grapes, and if Georgia is the best place, plant them there.

—A fight took place among some seamen on board the packet Wyoming, at that time gliding down the Delaware en route to Liverpool. Enflamed with rage and a mere suspicion of vile Philadelphia whiskey, James Quigley, whipped out his knife and deprived one of his fellow seamen of that important feature, (when beauty is the consideration) his nasal organ. A third man had his face and neck pretty well hashed by the knife of the bloodt hirsty Q. The revenue cutter Seward was signaled, and this committer of mayhem was carried to the Moyamensing gaol instead of to Liverpool, whither his inclinations and the good ship Wyoming would soon have taken him.

A Blunder of the Opera Composers.

An ingenious individual, Albert de Lasalle, has just published a dictionary of music as applied to love, in which he severely criticises a defect of physiognomical science apparent in the cast of voices at the opera. It is in virtue of custom, rather than reason, that composers always distribute to the tenor the role of the lover.

It may be demonstrated physiologically that an intimate connection exists between the gravity of the voice and that warmth of blood and nervous impetuosity which determines vehemence of sentiment. To imitate nature, the part of the lover should be played by the baritone, or even the bass. "It is notorious," continues the author, "that nature has endowed with more generous traits the creatures who possess deep voices, while those whose voices are thrill and high are generally dangerous and perfidious. Compare the Newfoundland dog (bass) with the cur (falsetto), and say whether you would rather be shut up in a cage with a duck (baritone), or with a serpent (soprano)."

While speaking of music and operas I am reminded of an odd quarrel and odder revenge taken by the musicians of the orchestra of the Theatre Italien. On an occasion of an extra representation, the orchestra claimed the extra pay due under such circumstances. But M. Bagier, who, like M. Haussemann, wishes to begin retrenchments, refused to pay. At this the musicians, instead of making an open strike, formed a secret and deadly resolution, which they carried into effect. They played pianissimo during the entire evening, to the great discomfiture of the singers and at the risk of entirely spoiling the piece.

It is probable that another time the demands of the orchestra will be considered among the first.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was about at a stand last evening with five feet in the channel by the Monongahela marks; we should not be surprised to find that it had swollen a few inches last night, under the influence of recent rains. The weather yesterday was raw and unsettled, with both snow and rain falling at intervals, and sometimes together.

The Julia No. 2 is the only arrival we have to report. The Kenton may have got out last night; she was overloaded, it appears, and was laying by waiting for more water—full of passengers.

The Echo arrived from Oil City, and the Ida Rees cleared for that point last evening with a very fair trip.

Oil City telegrams report thirty inches, stationary and raining. We should not be surprised to see a rise in the Allegheny river to-day or to-morrow.

The Armadillo, Capt. Hendrickson, for St. Louis and the Missouri river, and the Glasgow, Capt. G. W. Johnston, for the Upper Mississippi, are announced to leave to-day. These are both good boats, and as such we commend them to both passengers and shippers.

The Kate Robinson, Capt. Robt. Robinson, will be the first boat out for Cincinnati and Louisville, and the Emma No. 3, Capt. J. H. Marratta, is announced for St. Louis and the Upper Mississippi.

It seems we were in error in stating that Wm. Wherry had been promoted to the first clerkship of the Kate Robinson, and correct in announcing the resignation of Capt. A. J. Bears. "Staff" Palmer is the first clerk of the Kate, and Mr. Wherry is second clerk, which position he has held for some time.

The Importer, Capt. Williams; Ida Rees, Capt. Albert, and Silver Lake, Capt. Todd, all of the "Rees Line," are announced for Fort Benton.

The Grey Eagle, Capt. Brennan, is the regular packet for Parkersburg to-day, leaving promptly at noon. The Eagle and her officers are too well known in the trade to need any "puffing."

The Echo is the regular Thursday packet for Oil City, leaving as advertised at 4 p. m.

The Columbia left St. Louis on Saturday for Fort Benton with two hundred tons, drawing two feet water. Also, the Peninah, of the Kountz Line, with a full complement of government freight.

The St. Louis was at St. Louis on Monday, and it was thought she would go on up to Omaha, unless she could make a favorable arrangement to reship.

The Messenger, from Pittsburgh to St. Louis, and the Lawrence, from St. Louis to Pittsburgh, passed Evansville on Sunday. The Andrew Ackley was at Cairo the same day.

The Argosy and St. Charles were advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Monday.

The J. D. Perry, which is now high and dry twelve miles above Batesville, had a pleasure party on board when she struck. The water fell four feet in one night, and the passengers had to be taken to Batesville by the W. H. Brooks, which charged them $5 for their services. After landing the pleasure party, she returned to the Perry for cotton, but got aground, and will not get off before the June rise comes along. The Perry had a $10,000 trip in sight when she got aground.

A Louisville telegram, under date of Sunday, says: The Glendale, Silver Moon, Alice Dean and Anna passed down. The Darling and Emma Floyd passed up. The towboat Kate Watson arrived from Pomeroy with coal and departed for Cincinnati. The A. J. Baker arrived from Pittsburgh with coal. The low pressure Richmond arrived from Pittsburgh about noon, full of passengers and freight, being five days and eighteen hours out. She lost four hours in a storm at Owensboro, and made seventy way landings. She had a large drove of Texas cattle. The Silver Moon and Alice Dean descended the falls, made a very tight fit, but being in charge of Capt. Pink Varble, they went through safe.

The Wauanita arrived at St. Louis on Sunday from Pittsburgh, and the Monntaineer and Miner left there the same day for Fort Benton.

Captain Tom Berry, of the Ozark, has gained the name of slipping captain. He has slipped again and broke his collar bone.

The Frank Pargaud is again about to enter the Memphis and New Orleans trade with the intention of making weekly trips.

It is said that Captain Cannon will soon start the R. E. Lee and Magenta in the St. Louis and New Orleans trade, each making fonrteen-day trips.

It is not believed by the officers of the Mollie Able that the Dexter made the quick run reported. They say she left New Orleans at least two hours ahead of the time stated in her memoranda.

Steamboatmen in every direction are complaining of the low and short draw bridge being built across every navigable stream in the West. The Ohio Legislature passed a bill authorizing the building of a bridge across the Ohio River to connect Cincinnati with Newport, Kentucky. The span over the main channel is to be three hundred feet in length, and the adjoining spans two hundred and twenty feet each, with a hight and center of one hundred feet in the clear above low water. A company has been incorporated to build the bridge. Steamboatmen believe it will be an intolerable nuisance to navigation.

Of the one at Quincy, which is regarded by boatmen as one of the worst to be found anywhere, the Herald of that city contains the following:

Boatmen are beginning to look upon the bridge with a good deal of suspicion, and dread coming through it on dark nights. As the Hawkeye State passed through on Tuesday night, one of her barges got into the spiling, and several sacks of grain were knocked overboard; otherwise little or no damage done.

We clip the following items from the Cincinnati Enquirer of Monday: Captain Sweeny writes from St. Louis that unless the St. Marys is sold there, she will return here and run in connection with the Saint Charles as a weekly Pittsburgh packet. The Minneola reshipped 318 bales of cotton on the R. C. Gray for Pittsburgh. The Argosy, from Pittsburgh, reshipped about forty tons miscellaneous freight on the Groesbeck for New Orleans.

WE PRINT this very important enactment this morning, The merits of the law must be judged by its practical operations. We have, nevertheless, attentively considered its provisions, and feel bound to say that they seem to us well guarded, carefully elaborated and completely adapted to the great purpose which the Legislature had in view and which has been concurrently demanded by all the friends of the purity of the ballot-boxes. That purpose may be briefly stated to be the securing of a more complete exemption from frauds upon the suffrage, by the preparation of a correct voting-list, bearing the name of every citizen who is entitled or who claims title to exercise the right, and the seasonable publication of that list in advance of the election day. We commend this act to the particular attention of election officers and all good citizens, irrespective of party.

IN OUR columns, this morning, appears a requisition upon our worthy townsman, Col. WILLIAM PHILLIPS, to become a candidate for Congress in the Twenty-second Congressional District. This document is signed by hundreds of our best citizens, representing all the leading interests of the neighborhood, and is a testimonial which does him high honor. Few gentlemen in Allegheny county are as well qualified to fill the position as Col. PHILLIPS, to which he is called, and certainly none have more ardent friends and admirers. It required no little moral courage to decline becoming a candidate under such auspicious circumstances; but Col. PHILLIPS, unfortunately, is so wrapped up in a great local railway enterprise that he cannot withdraw his attention from it sufficiently long to represent this district in the National Assembly. His declination will greatly disappoint his many friends who sought him out for the office, and while they excuse him this time, his services may in the future be more imperatively demanded by an intelligent constituency.

THE ELECTIONS.

Connecticut gave ENGLISH (Dem.) for Governor, last year, a majority of 987, but the Republicans carried the Legislature by majorities of one in the Senate and ten in the House. At the election on Monday last, ENGLISH was re-elected by a majority somewhat increased, the latest estimates being about 1,500, but the Republicans not only again control of the Legislature, but have increased their majorities to three in the Senate, and a majority of at least thirty in the House. In '67 the Republicans polled 46,578 votes and the Democrats 47,565,—the total being 94,143. The aggregate vote of Monday has not yet reached us; a heavy poll was anticipated and no doubt it has been cast. In the absence of any details, or of any precise figures in the different sections of the State, speculations based upon the result would be premature. We can, however, well afford to be satisfied with any election which strengthens our hold upon all the substantial fruits of a triumph. Our control of the Legislature is strengthened, giving us, among other things, the seat in the U. S. Senate now held by Hon. JAMES DIXON, who has abandoned the Republican party which elected him, linking his fortunes to those of the President whom he will soon follow into a perpetual retirement from public life. On the whole we need not complain of Connecticut. Can our Democratic friends conscientiously do the same?

Michigan follows the example of Ohio, Wisconsin, Kansas and Connecticut in refusing the right of suffrage to colored men. But the exultation of the Democracy over this result is sadly checked by her vote also on Monday to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors. Between free whisky and the equally free "nigger," it is the general impression that they would rather swallow the latter than to be deprived of the former. The lesser gain is to them no compensation now for the greater affliction to which they must submit.

The charter elections at Cincinnati and Cleveland have resulted, on the whole, in Republican success. At Cincinnati the Democrats get three of the minor city offices, and have diminished our majority on the others by the aid of the "working men's" movement. At Cleveland, the Republicans gain in the council, with a general majority of from 500 to 700 on the ward tickets, a gain of nearly 1,000 over the last election.

ON MONDAY Mr. GEORGE B. VASHON, of Allegheny, was admitted as a lawyer in the Supreme Court of the United States at Washington, Judge NELSON administering the oath. He was admitted on the same credentials upon which he was excluded a few days ago from the bar of this county. Fortunately for him an appeal cannot be taken from the National Supreme Court to the Court of Common Pleas of this county; otherwise he might even now be thrown overboard. It so happens, notwithstanding the dicta of Judge MELLON, that State lines are not obliterated, and the State governments, including their Courts, are at liberty, within their prescribed orbits, to be as bigoted and proscriptive as they see proper to be.

THE MAYOR'S VETO.

By the 18th section of the Consolidation Act, passed last year, the Mayor of Pittsburgh was armed with the power of negativing any Ordinance enacted by Councils, The section provides distinctly that upon the passage of an Ordinance several things shall be done: 1. That the President of each Council shall sign it; 2. That it shall then be submitted to the Mayor; 3. That if he approves, he shall sign it; 4, That if he disapproves, he shall return it to the Councils with his objections; 5. That the return shall be made within five days after the delivery of the Ordinance to him; 6. That the Councils may pass any vetoed Ordinance into a law, by the concurrence of not less than three fifths of the members.

Some little time ago the Councils passed an Ordinance for widening the side-walks on Fifth street—which widening would have proved a notable accommodation to the crowd of idlers who plant themselves in it, like multitudinous posts, every pleasant evening, and are not ordered by the police to "go along, and keep moving," as they ought to be. This Ordinanee was duly attested by the Presidents of Councils and delivered to the Mayor. Not liking its provisions, he concluded to withhold from it his approval. Accordingly, he wrote out his objections, and meeting the President of the Council, with which the Ordinance originated, in the street, he handed the documents to him. The President, as was most proper, remarked, on the spot, that he was not the Council, to whom the veto was to be delivered, and that he had no authority to convoke the Councils, so that the Mayor's veto could be received by them within the five days specified by the law. However, the Mayor went on his way, taking no apparent heed of this pertinent suggestion.

By the 23d section of the Consolidation Act, the Councils are required to hold at least quarterly meetings, and may hold special meetings by adjournment. Special meetings may, also, be summoned by the Mayor, a Standing or Special Committee, or by five members of Councils. This would seem to make the duty of the Mayor plain in the premises under consideration. He was entitled to time in which to consider the Fifth Street Ordinance, and to write out his objections thereto, but only so that his objections were duly presented to the Councils inside of the specified five full days. If no regular quarterly meeting of the Councils was to occur within those five days, and if no special meeting thereof was summoned, either by Standing or Special Committee, or by the joint action of five members, it was his duty to call a special meeting within the five days, and, upon the assembling of the Councils, to have sent in his objections in a formal and decorous manner. Failing to place his objections before the Councils within the five days, the Ordinance became valid notwithstanding the handing of his objections to the President of one of the Councils—which was an act not required of him, because, by no construction of law, and no deduction of common sense, can the President be made to stand instead of the Council itself, or a street delivery to him be made to answer for that precise and legal presentation which the law commands.

On Monday last the Mayor's veto was brought before the Councils, and, after discussion, was sustained. Now, we have no interest whatever in the Ordinance in question; but, we hold as a matter of law, that the action of Councils was just as irregular as that of the Mayor himself, and consequently of none effect. When the Mayor failed to return the Ordinance to the Councils within the prescribed five days, it became a law, to all intents, purposes and constructions whatsoever. The Mayor might as well have kept that Ordinance in his own pocket, as to have slid it informally, on the highway, into the pocket of the President of one of the Councils; the legal effect of the pocketing being the same. If the Councils, upon fuller consideration, whether induced by the objections of the Mayor, or by any other cause whatsoever, were of the opinion that the Ordinance was impolitic, their true course was to treat it as valid and subject it to the repealing process. By sustaining a veto, which clearly was no veto at all, and has no legal significance under any proper aspect, they have only made the affair into a more complete muddle than it was where the veto left it.

These considerations, of some consequence as the case stands, would be of serious moment provided the Mayor's power of veto had remained in the charter. It so happened, however, that on Friday last, a bill amendatory of the Consolidation Act was passed by the Legislature. By this act the veto power is taken away from the Mayor, and Ordinances are now valid by the attestations of the Presidents, after having passed the Councils. Another important fact remains to be noticed. The Mayor's veto did not get before the Councils until last Monday. If that document had been regularly transmitted, it was not received within the five days, and hence was destitute of effect. But, if our information is correct, the bill amendatory of the Consolidation Act, and taking away the Mayor's right of veto, was signed by the Governor, and became a law, before this veto message came before the Councils. If this be so, the case is still more confounded.

THE ENGLISH MINISTRY.

Mr. D'ISRAELI, it is reported, has decided to give up the seals of office in case the opposition should retain their large majority after the recess of Parliament. We are, nevertheless, disposed to regard his intentions, in this respect, as not so distinctly pronounced as to preclude him from another consideration of his duty. He knows well, already, that the combined opposition are too strong in the Commons for the Tory party. He knew it when he took office; he knew it when Earl DERBY, his predecessor as Premier, and leading the same party, assumed the reins of government in 1866; he knew it as well before the Commons counted out on Friday night, as after the result was declared by the tellers; he knew it when, before the division, and indeed in his first speech in the debate, he declared that if the House should be against Ministers, he would appeal to a new election. The issue which he therein presented to the opposition, they accepted, and then voted him down, to signify their disregard of the menace. By law, the present Parliament would expire, by limitation, next year, and the succeeding one, whether elected now or one year later, will be chosen under the provisions of the new Reform bill of last year, which extends the suffrage, enlarges the constituencies and re-distributes the seats.

But the Premier has thus far more distinctly committed himself to a new election however unpromising, than to its alternative of resignation, as announced in the later report. And such, we are confident, will prove to be his policy—waiting until the Budget and other pending measures of importance, such as the Scotch and Irish Reform bills, settling the suffrage in these portions of the Empire, have been passed, and then, dissolving Parliament, he will appeal to a new general election. This course will be strictly in accordance with the spirit of the British Constitution, as established by the uniform practice of Ministers in similar cases since the reign of the First George.

The results of a new election are morally certain to sustain the opposition. Popular sentiment in Great Britain is unquestionably well up to the mark at which ministers are now beaten; many intelligent observers declare that the constituencies are even far in advance of their present members touching these great questions. But Mr. D'ISRAELI will, however hopeless the case, avail himself of the established precedents and their resulting privilege for a beaten ministry. He will not, by resigning now, himself sign the death-warrant of the once powerful Tory party. He prefers to exhaust every resource for protracting its life, and will retain to the last possible moment its hold upon a power which,—when his ministry shall finally succumb to the irresistible pressure of events, in the onward march of popular enlightenment among the middling and lower classes of the population of the Empire—will never again, in all time to come, be entrusted to the Tories. When his successors, of whatever peculiar shade of political liberalism among his opponents, shall take the seals of office, the history of English Toryism may be written. Its mission accomplished; its life exhausted, the elements in which it originated and which have sustained its vitality, disappearing forever, to be hereafter felt, if at all, as an unknown, collateral and almost infinitesimal quantity in English politics, the destines of the British Empire will be controlled, in all coming years, in the interests of the great masses of an enlightened, progressive people. Class interests,—and these, the interests of a limited and exclusive aristocracy which derived all its title to power not from numbers, but from a wealth, intelligence and aptitude for public affairs, then peculiar to titled rank, but now shared more than equally by the millions,—are no longer to rule England. The policy of the Empire, whether domestic or foreign, demands a larger view of the progress of civilization and knowledge, a more generous acknowledgment of equal political rights and of the absolute freedom, in all civil and religious things, of the individual citizen, and that demand shall never again be gainsayed. The ruin of D'ISRAELI'S Ministry, a work which can but be postponed for a twelve month more, will crown the final and hopeless wreck of the old order of things, and the new era then comes in. As the vital principles of Social and Individual Freedom shall hereafter be faithfully interpreted, in the same measure will England advance to higher glories, a nobler and broader power and to a more conspicuous influence among the free peoples of the globe.

IT IS CONCEDED at Washington that Impeachment has established itself by adequate proof upon at least nine of the eleven articles. As to the President's line of defence, we see no cause for changing the opinion which we have heretofore uttered, that his express admission of the violation of laws, for whatever motive, would alone render all the ability and ingenuity of his counsel hopelessly futile. Whichever way they may turn, for an avenue of escape from the legal penalty of his misconduct, the fatal power of that confession overshadows them as an unconquerable obstacle to his acquittal. In admitting proof that his agent, General THOMAS, had declared that he would make that violation of the law effective, in taking possession of the War Office by force, the Senate gave a vote which was nearer a test than any yet recorded on the trial. The testimony, when objected to, was ruled in by the Chief Justice and sustained by the Senate in a vote of thirty-nine to eleven, every Republican present voting in its favor. And such will be the future votes, whenever they are to decide, not minor issues, but the great underlying question of innocence or guilt. His counsel will introduce but little testimony, and much of that will be of no intrinsic weight. For example, he will prove by General SHERMAN and by one or two of the letter-writers who have been his confidential exponents for months past, that he verbally disclaimed to them any intention to violate the Civil Tenure act. Of what consequence can such proof be, against his official and express declarations to the contrary? How does it explain his undeniable intention to accomplish a violation of the law, not only through THOMAS and by force, but also through COOPER, whom he attempted to foist into the Treasury in order to secure the control of the Department funds? How will such evidence reconcile his suspension of Mr. STANTON under the provisions of the law itself, as admitted officially by him in his communication to Congress and to the other Secretaries, with his subsequent claim to suspend or remove him under the Constitution alone? Mr. JOHNSON'S lawyers have a bad client and a bad cause; they have ability, and will accomplish all they can in his defence, but the age of miracles has gone by. Nothing short of one can save him!

THE REGISTRY LAW.

A Further Supplement to the Act Relating to the Elections of this Commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same: That, from and after the passage of this act, it shall be the duty of the several assessors within this Commonwealth, on receiving their transcripts from the county commissioners, to proceed to make out a list in alphabetical order of the white freemen above twenty-one years of age, whom they shall know, or who shall make claim to said assessors, to be qualified voters within their respective townships, boroughs, wards or other election districts, and, opposite said names, state whether the said freeman is or is not a housekeeper and, if he is, the number of his residence, in towns where the same are numbered, with the street, alley or court in which situated, and, if in a town where there are no numbers, the name of the street, alley or court on which said house fronts; also the occupation of the party, and, where he is not a housekeeper, the occupation, place of boarding, and with whom, and, if working for another, the name of the employer; and write opposite said name the word "voter;" and, where said party claims to vote by reason of naturalization, he shall exhibit his certificate thereof to the assessor, unless he shall have voted in the township, borough, ward or district at five preceding general elections, and, on exhibition of the certificate, the name shall be marked with the letter N; where the party has merely declared his intention to become a citizen, and designs to be naturalized before the next election, the name shall be marked D I; where the claim is to vote by reason of being between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two as provided by law, the word "age" shall be entered; and, if the party has moved into the election district to reside since the last general election, the letter R shall be placed opposite the name; and in all of the cases enumerated a tax shall forthwith be assessed against the person. And in order to carry this law into effect for the present year, it shall be the duty of the commissioners of the respective counties of this Commonwealth, within sixty days after the passage of this act, to cause alphabetical lists of the persons returned by the assessors as having been assessed in the several districts for the present year to be made out and placed in the hands of the respective assessors, whose duty it shall be, on or before the first of September, to ascertain the qualifications of the persons so named, and their claims to vote as before mentioned, and perform in regard to such persons all of the duties enjoined by this act, and furnish said list to the commissioners and election board as hereinafter directed; Provided That the names of all persons, who were duly registered and permitted to vote at the next preceding general election in October shall, without further proof or application, be placed on the list or registry directed to be prepared for the election in November, but they and all others shall be subject to challenge, and their right to vote be passed on as prescribed by the fourth section of this act.

SEC. 2. On the list being completed and the assessments made as aforesaid, the same shall forthwith be returned to the county commissioners, who shall cause duplicate copies of said lists, with the observations and explanations required to be noted as aforesaid, to be made out as soon as practicable and placed in the hands of the assessor, who shall, prior to the first of August next ensuing said assessments, put one copy thereof on the door of the house where the election of the rsspective district is required to be held, and retain the other in his possession for the inspection, free of charge, of any person resident within the said election district who shall desire to see the same, and it shall be the duty of said assessor to add from time to time, on the personal application of any olaiming the right to vote, the name of such claimant, and mark opposite the name C V, and immediately assess him with a tax. On the tenth day preceding the general election in October next thereafter, it shall be the duty of the assessor to produce the list in his possession to the inspectors and judges of the election of the proper district, at a meeting to be held by them as hereinafter directed.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the inspectors and judge of the election, together with the assessor, to attend at the place of holding the general elections for the respective election districts, on Saturday the tenth day next preceding the second Tuesday in October, and on the other days hereinafter meationed, and continue in open session at said place from nine o'clock A. M. till six o'clock P. M. of said day, to hear proof of the right of the respective persons to vote whose names are contained in the assessor's list as before mentioned, or who shall apply to them to have their names registered, and all persons who have not previously voted in the election district shall make due proof, in the manner now prescribed by the election laws, of their right to vote in said district, and like proof shall be made in all cases by those applying for registry whose names are not enrolled by the assessor and marked "voter," and it shall then be the duty of the assessor forthwith to assess said person with a tax as required by law, on the proof being made to the satisfaction of the election board if not already assessed; on the list of the voters in the said district being complete, it shall be the duty of the election officers aforesaid to cause duplicate copies thereof to be made out forthwith in alphabetical order, one of which shall be placed on the door of or on the house where the elections are to be held, and the other retained by the judge of election, who shall hold the same subject to the inspection of any citizen of said district until the day of the general election, and produce the same thereat; Provided, that the officers hereinbefore named, when they shall deem it advisable, may meet for the purposes named in this section one or more days (not exceeding four) prior to the tenth day next preceding any general or presidential election, of which meeting and its purposes they shall give due public notice by written or printed handbills posted in at least six of the most public places in their respective wards in cities, boroughs, wards in boroughs or townships; And provided further, That, where any ward in a city, borough, or ward in a borough or township, having but one assessor is divided into two or more election precincts or districts, the judges and inspectors of all such election districts or precincts in each ward in a city, borough, ward in a borough or township respectively, shall meet at the usual place of holding the election in the precinct polling the largest number of votes at the last preceding election in their respective wards, boroughs or townships, and shall give due public notice as herein before provided of the time and place of their meeting, and, in all cases where any ward in a city, borough, ward in a borough or township, is so divided into two or more election districts, it shall be the duty of the assessor to assess each voter in the election district to which he belongs, and to furnish separate duplicate lists to the election officers in each election district; it shall be the further duty of the said inspectors, judges and assessor, in each ward, borough and township, to meet again at the place fixed on by the third section of this act on the Thursday next preceding any general election, between the hours of nine and ten A. M., and remain in session until six P. M., for the purpose of hearing and determining any claims that may be presented to them by any person or persons claiming to be entitled to vote, and whose name or names have not been entered on the registry of the election district in which he or they claim to be entitled to vote; each person so claiming to be entitled to vote therein shall produce at least one qualified voter of the district as a witness to the residence of the claimant, in the district in which he claims to be a voter, for the period of least ten days next preceding the general election then next ensuing, which witness shall take and subscribe an affidavit to the facts stated by him, which affidavit shall define clearly where the residence is of the person so claiming to be a voter, and the person so claiming to be registered shall also take and subscribe an affidavit stating where and when he was born, that he is a citizen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and of the United States, and, if a naturalized citizen, shall also state when, where and by what court he was naturalized, and he shall also present his certificate of naturalization for examination, unless he has been a voter in said election district for five years then next preceding, that he has resided in this Commonwealth one year or, if formerly a citizen therein and has moved therefrom, that he has resided therein six months next preceding the general election then next following, that he has not moved in the district for the purpose of voting therein, that he has paid a State or county tax within two years, which was assessed at least ten days before the election for which he proposes to be registered, and that he was prevented from registering his name at the first meeting for that purpose as directed by this act; the said affidavit shall also state when and where the tax claimed to be paid by the affidavit was assessed, and when, where and to whom paid, and the tax-receipt therefor shall be produced for examination unless the affiant shall make oath that it has been lost or destroyed or that he never received any receipt; Provided, that if the person so claiming the right to vote shall take and subscribe an affidavit that he is a citizen of the United States, that he is at the time of making the affidavit or will be on or before the day of the next election ensuing between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years, that he has resided in the State one year and in the election district ten days next preceding such election, he shall be entitled to be registered as a voter although he shall not have paid taxes; the said affidavits of all persons making such claims, and the affidavit of the witnesses to their residence, shall be preserved by the said board until the day of the election, and shall, at the close thereof, be placed in the ballot box along with the other papers now required by law to be preserved therein; if said board shall find that the applicant or applicants possess all the legal qualifications of voters, the name or names shall be added to the list alphabetically with like effect as if done ten days before the election, and they shall forthwith be placed with the other names at the foot of the list on the door or house of the place of election, and, as such person whose name is enrolled votes at said election, one of the clerks thereof shall mark on or opposite to the name "vote," and it shall not be lawful for the officers of the election to receive the vote of any person whose name was not contained in said registry made out and put up at least eight days before the election as aforesaid, or in the registry made on the Thursday next preceding the election, and the reception of the vote of any person not so registered shall constitute a misdemeanor in the election officers so receiving it, and on conviction thereof, the election officers so offending shall be subject to fine or imprisonment or both at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 4. It shall be lawful for any qualified citizen of the district, notwithstanding the name of the proposed voter is contained in the registry and the right to vote has been passed on by the election board, to challenge the vote of such person, whereupon the same proof of the right of suffrage as is now required by law shall be publicly made and again acted on by the election board, and the vote admitted or rejected according to the evidence; every person claiming to be a naturalized citizen shall be required to produce his naturalization certificate at the election before voting, as required by existing laws, except where his case comes within the fifth provision of the sixty-fourth section of the act of one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, to which this is a supplement, although the same may have been exhibited to the election board before registry; and, on the vote of such persons being received, it shall be the duty of the election officers to cause to be distinctly written therein the word "voted," with the month and year, and if any election officer at the same or any other district shall receive a second vote on the same day by virtue of such certificate, they and the person who shall offer such second vote upon so offending shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor and, on conviction thereof, be fined and imprisoned at the discretion of the court; Provided, Said fine shall not exceed one hundred dollars and the imprisonment shall not exceed one year; and like punishment shall be inflicted on the officers of the election who shall neglect or refuse to make or cause to be made the endorsement required as aforesaid on said naturalization certificate.

SEC. 5. On the close of the polls, the registry list, on which the memorandum of the voting has been kept as before directed, shall be sealed up with and preserved in the same manner now required by law as to the tally papers, and not taken out until after the next meeting of the Legislature, unless required on the hearing of a contested election, or for the purpose of being used at the election of presidential electors or preparatory thereto as hereinafter provided, after which it shall again be sealed up and carefully preserved as before directed.

SEC. 6. Ten days preceding every election for electors of President and Vice-President of the United States, it shall be the duty of the election board and the proper assessor to meet at the place of holding the general election in the district, for the same length of time and in the manner directed in the third section of this act, and then and there hear all applications of persons whose names have been omitted from the registry, and who claim the right to vote, or whose rights have originated since the same was made out, and add thereto the names of such persons as shall show that they are entitled to the right of suffrage in such district, on the personal application of the claimant only, and, if the person shall not have been previously assessed, it shall be the duty of the assessor forthwith to assess him with the proper tax; after completing the list a copy thereof shall be placed on the door of or on the house where the election is to be held at least eight days prior to holding the same, when the same course shall be pursued in every particular in regard to receiving or rejecting the votes, marking the same on the registry list, endorsing the naturalization papers with the proper month and year, preserving the paper and all other things, as are required by this act at the general elections in October.

SEC. 7. At every special election directed by law, and at every separate city, ward, borough or township election, the registry required to be kept as aforesaid may be used by the proper officers as evidence of the persons entitled to vote thereat, and said officers shall require all persons whose names are not on the registry, whether challenged or not, to show that they possess the right of suffrage at said election, but nothing herein contained shall make the want of said registry conclusive against the rights of the person to vote at such election, but the same shall be judged of and decided as in other cases.

SEC. 8. Before entering on the duties of their offices under this act, the respective assessors and inspectors and judges of the elections shall take an oath before some competent authority, in addition to the oaths now required by law, "to perform the several duties enjoined by this act with fidelity and according to the requirements thereof in every particular to the best of their ability;" they shall each have the power to administer oaths to every person claiming the right to be assessed, or enrolled, or the right of suffrage, or in regard to any other matter or thing required to be done or inquired into by said officers under this act, and any wilful false swearing by any person, in relation to any matter or thing concerning which they shall be lawfully interrogated by any of said officers under this act, shall be punished as perjury; said assessors, inspectors and judges shall each receive the same compensation for the time necessarily spent in performing the duties hereby enjoined as is provided by law for the performance of their other duties, to be paid by the county commissioners as in other cases, with a proper allowance to be judged of by the said commissioners for the expense of making the list or registries hereby required to be made out, and it shall not be lawful for any assessor to assess a tax against any person whatever within ten days next preceding the election to be held on the second Tuesday in October in any year, or within ten days next before any election for electors of President or Vice President of the United States, and any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor and subject the officer so offending to a fine on conviction of not less than ten nor exceeding one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment not exceeding three months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 9. On the petition of five or more citizens of the county, stating under oath that they verily believe that frauds will be practiced at the election about to be held in any district, it shall be the duty of the court of common pleas of said county if in session, or, if not, a judge thereof in vacation, to appoint two persons, judicious, sober and intelligent citizens of the county, to act as overseers at said election; said persons shall be selected from different political parties where the inspectors belong to different parties, and, where both of said inspectors belong to the same political party, both of the overseers shall be taken from the opposite political party; said overseers shall have the right to be present with the officers of the election during the whole time the same is held, the votes counted and returns made out and signed by the election officers, to keep a list of the voters if they see proper, to challenge any person offering to vote and interrogate him and his witnesses under oath in regard to the right of suffrage at said election, to examine his papers produced, and the officers of said election are required to afford to said overseers so selected and appointed every convenience and facility for the discharge of their duty, and if said officers shall refuse to permit said overseers to be present and perform their duty as aforesaid, or they shall be driven away from the polls by violence or intimidation, all the votes polled at such election district shall be rejected by any tribunal trying a contest under said election.

SEC. 10. If any prothonotary, clerk, or the deputy of either, or any other person, shall affix the seal of office to any naturalization paper, or give out the same in blank whereby it may be fraudulently used, or furnish a naturalization certificate to any person who shall not have been duly examined and sworn in open court in presence of some of the judges thereof according to the act of Congress, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, or if any person shall fraudulently use any such certificate of naturalization knowing that it was fraudulently issued, and shall vote or attempt to vote thereon, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and either or any of the persons, their aiders or abettors, guilty of either of the misdemeanors aforesaid, on conviction shall be fined in a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars and imprisoned in the proper penitentiary for a period not exceeding three years.

SEC. 11. Any assessor, election officer or person appointed as an overseer, who shall neglect or refuse to perform any duty enjoined by this act without reasonable legal cause shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars, and if any assessor or election officer shall enrol any person as a voter who he shall know is not qualified, or refuse to enrol any one who he shall know is qualified, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office and, on conviction, be punished by fine and imprisonment and also be subject to an action for damages by the party aggrieved, and if any person shall fraudulently alter, add to, deface or destroy any registry of voters made out as directed by this act, or tear down or remove the same from the place where it has been fixed by or under the direction of the election officers, with like fraudulent or mischievous intent or for any improper purpose, the person so offending shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor and, on conviction, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars and imprisonment not exceeding two years.

SEC. 12. If any tax collector is found guilty of issuing a receipt for taxes to any person whatever, said taxes not having been paid, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor in office and, on conviction, shall be fined in a sum not less than one hundred dollars and suffer an imprisonment in the county jail for a term not less than three months for every offence.

SEC. 13. That for all elections hereafter holden under this act the polls shall be opened between the hours of six and seven o'clock A M and be closed at six o'clock P M.

SEC. 14. That the county commissioners shall, at the proper expense of the county, procure and furnish all the blanks made necessary by this act.

SEC. 15. All laws inconsistent with any of the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

Te achers' Institute.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Permit me through the columns of your paper to say a word respecting the Teachers' Institute. The object of this association is the improvement of the teachers in our public schools, and and the attainment of a higher educational standard in those schools. Was this object, in any degree, attained by the Institute held in your city during the last week? If the opinion of many of the eminent educators who addressed the Institute—among whom was our worthy Deputy State Superintendent, and also a distinguished educator from New York—is of any value, we may safely assert that this object was not attained,—but the reverse. The teachers of this Institute were repeatedly told that they were spending their time in vain. One lecturer told them that they "reminded him of a huge inert sponge"—that "every word he uttered was uttered under protest—and that he did not "believe in casting his pearls before ———." An intelligent public will naturally demand, "why the Institute failed in the accomplishment of its object?" "Are the teachers of Allegheny County incapable of forming themselves into and conducting such an association properly?" We think that the fault does not rest with the majority of the teachers, but is to be attributed to a few demagogues, who for some time past have been endeavoring to control the educational interests of the county—men whose motto, like that of all demagogues, is rule or ruin—and who, having differed on certain educational points, turned the Institute into an arena for the display of their oratorial (?) powers, and succeeded in destroying the peace and harmony that otherwise would have prevailed. Men whose minds are so small, and whose egotism is so great, that they could not lay aside, for a time, their petty jealousies and labor for mutual improvement and the good of all present. The only remnant of our lost Eden that remains for a fallen race is the mutual and social intercourse of pure, refined and cultivated minds, and the greatest pleasure such minds experience arises from and is proportioned to the lasting benefits they bestow and receive. We frequently noticed an expression of sorrow and of pain passing over some intelligent and refined countenance whenever an exhibition of vulgar passion occurred. Cultivated and refined minds are always pained and disgusted when brought in contact with low browed baseness and vulgarity. Some of the would-be prominent members of the Institute, instead of winning the admiration and applause which they so much coveted, only succeeded in arousing a feeling of contempt mingled with pity. The scene on Tuesday would have disgraced an Indian pow-wow. On the afternoon of this day an election was entered into for the purpose of selecting a committee of five, who are to recommend or reject the applications of those wishing permanent certificates. During the morning session, while an able lecture was being elivered on the subject, "How should the ducation of Youth be Conducted so as to .ccomplish its Object?" we noticed some f the eager aspirants for official honors oving up, down and across the aisles and mong the audience, soliciting votes and rging their claims, while disparaging ose of the opposition, thus disturbing ll in their vicinity. This was a reat insult, not only to the Rever- nd gentleman delivering the lecture, ut also to the audience. The afternoon ession, from the opening till the close of ne ballot, presented a scene that out Ba- eled-Babel. One of the candidates took ne rostrum and explained his position. When he got through, one of the opposition ook his place. At this moment the Presi- ent called for order, and requested the iember to defer his remarks till the prep- rations for balloting could be completed. The member replied that the opposition ad spoken, and he, too, would have his say. nother member took the stand, but was nable to make himself heard, his voice be- ng completely drowned by the stamping f the opposition. What he failed in say- ng, however, he made up in gesticulation— nd such gesticulation!! Well might the ld latin poet sing "facilist est descensus Averni." We regret to say that some of he ladies joined in the confusion, and, udging from the quantity and quality of he music they produced by "heel and oe" we feel warranted in believing that he "blue stockings" worn by these fair lit- rati were at least number nine. While the alloting was going on, some of the candi- lates were moving about through the con- usion, circulating tickets and soliciting otes. When rival candidates met, a scene f vulgar passion generally ensued— harges of unfairness and recriminations vere bandied to and fro. What one candi- late said of another was reported as soon s possible to the one of whom it was said. his was most humiliating and disgraceful. he old apothegm, "esse quam videri," ap- ears to have been reversed by these edu- ated (?) gentlemen. A duel was loudly alked of by two of the honorable (?) mem- ers. If such disgraceful conduct be the egitimate fruit of education, then let us ull down our school houses and abolish our system of public instruction. But are hese men educated? We confidently as- ert they are not, and for proof of our as- ertion we cite their conduct at the insti- ute. We have been informed that some f these gentlemen have received a theolog- cal training—God save the mark—Domi- us robiscum sit, gentlemen! True educa- ion gives power to the mind and also eaches our duty to ourselves and to others. A well educated man will never lay aside is manhood and descend to the vulgar evel of the braggadocio. That education which does not show its influence in every lay life—in all our transactions with our ellow men, both public and private—and n particular that education which does not make itself apparent in the presence of cul- ivated and refined women, is of little value ndeed.

We hope that when our yearly meeting gain comes round, these gentlemen will either have left the profession which they have disgraced, or better still, will have cultivated their minds and hearts to such an extent as will enable them to conduct themselves decently in respectable society. If they do not do one of these two things, we hope the "powers that be" will cancel their certificates and thus rid the profes- sion of the demagogues.

A RUSTICICUS PRÆCEPTOR.

—The Iowa, Illinois and Indiana Divis- ions of the American Central Railroad have been consolidated. The new organization is styled the American Central Railway. It extends from Fort Wayne five hundred and eighty-five miles west to Omaha, shortening the route from New York 140 miles, and making one of the greatest rail- ways in the country. Judge Thompson, of Illinois, will be President.

—A man named C. Smith swindled a large number of poor people in Brooklyn by promising them situations, and taking $2,50 in advance from each. On Saturday, when they were all to have gone to work, neither Smith nor his manufactory could be found.

UNRIVALLED.

Nothing that has ever been known or heard of a tonic adds so much to the resistant power of the human system, under circumstances unfavorable to health, as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. If you would escape the intermittent fevers, fits of indigestion, bilious attacks and bowel complaints, of which cold and damp are the frequent causes, use the BITTERS as a PROTECTIVE MEDICINE. This is the wisest course; but if already an invalid, try the preparation as a RESTORATIVE. In either case full reliance may be placed upon its efficacy.

There is no mystery about the causes of its suc- cess. It is the only stomachic and alterative in which are combined the grand requisites of a mild, pure and unvitiated vegetable stimulant, with the finest selection of tonic, anti-bilious, anti-scorbutic, aperient and depurative herbs, plants, roots and barks that have ever been intermixed in a medicinal preparation.

The Bitters have this distinctive quality, which is not shared, it is believed, by any tonic, tincture or extract in the world. It does not excite the pulse, though it infuses a wonderful degree of vigor into the nervous system, and strengthens and sustains the whole physical organization.

California and Australia have emphatically en- dorsed it as the MINER'S MEDICINE par excel- lence, and in Spanish America and all the tropical climate, it is considered the only reliable antidote to epidemic fevers.

The already immense and still increasing con- sumption of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, backed by many of the most influential physicians throughout the country, should convince the most skeptical that it is worthy the confidence and appro- bation of all.

ANOTHER CURE OF DEAFNESS.

I lost my hearing during the last year. Part of the time I was totally deaf. In April of this year I was induced, from an advertisement, to make ap- plication to DR. KEYSER, 120 Penn street, Pitts- burgh. After having tried various medicines from doctors, without any benefit, I have been under Dr. Keyser's treatment now for nearly two months, and am entirely restored to my hearing, so that I can hear a pin drop. ANOTHER CURE.

A man called to-day at Dr. Keyser's office to in- form him of a great cure made by his LUNG CURE, or PULMONARY RESTORATIVE. list these cures are made with the Doctor's preparations, he desires it to be distinctly understood that most of his great cures are made in accordance with the established laws that govern the science of medicine, in which he has been engaged for the past twenty-five years. Last week he was also in receipt of a letter from a clergyman in the State of Ohio, detailing another most wonderful cure.

"The play hinges upon the absurdities of a female Assessor, a female Judge of the Supreme Court, and a female politician, and the ludicrous aspects of a state of society in which women make proposals of marriage to men, and every bachelor is exposed to two hundred thousand offers, more or less. These ideas are carried out with great humor. The play has caused a marked sensation in Boston, where it has been acted by some of the elite for the benefit of the Cretans."—N. Y. Nation.

"The Spirit of '76—not 1776, but 1876—is the name of a spirited parlor drama which has given lively pleasure to select social circles in Boston. It gives a somewhat extravagant, and therefore amus- ingly, emphatic picture of what might be the condi- tion of society and the facts of daily life, if the ex- treme aspirations of the Woman's Rights party were practically fulfilled. Very witty is the dialogue, very comic are the situations, very incongruous the relative positions."—N. Y. Evening Post."

"A delicious morceau, made a capital success by the delicate humor, the many sharp hits and the amusing situations which it introduces."—Boston Post.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Gold opened at 137¾, advanced to 138¼, declined to 137⅞, and closed firm at 138⅛. A large short interest is still outstanding uncovered, and it is believed that the market will decline still further before an advance can be established; the sudden rise, however, in government bonds will soon relieve a large amount of money, and it is probable that an upward movement will be put on foot before the papment of the May coupons commences.

Government bonds advanced suddenly to-day from 1½ to 2 per cent. since Friday. It was expected that this advance would take place yesterday, but a large amount of money was tied by contract, which will not be released for a day or two, and between this and Thursday Governments may take another sharp rise; the tendency is more for lower rates on account of the scarcity of money in the interior.

Stocks are firm and higher, in sympathy with the ease of the money market at the eastern cities, but local stocks are not much in demand. A larger investment demand usually sets in about May when large dividends are paid. Money commands from 1 to 1¼ per cent. per month yet.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

New York Dry Goods Market.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

NEW YORK, April 7.—The market for cotton goods is less active owing to the prevalence of a rain storm, but prices are quite buoyant at 18½a19c for best makes of heavy brown sheetings; 10c for best standard print cloths; 14½c for all standard and regular grades of madder prints; 16½a19c for Glassgow and Lancaster ginghams; 17c for brown drills of best make, which is low; 18a20c for delaines and armures. The demand for woolen goods continues light, except for the finest grades of fine fancies which sell in moderate quantities; the woolen goods market is devoid of activity and lacking in buoyancy.

Chicago Cattle Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, April 7.—Beef cattle firm at $6a7 for medium to fair; $8,85a9 for choice to extra.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

The general markets were rather dull today, which may have been owing, to some extent, at least, to the inclement condition of the weather. There is, however, a continued fair demand for most of the leading articles, and prices, as a general thing, are pretty well maintained.

APPLES—Quiet but steady and unchanged; regular sales in store at $4 to $6 per bbl, as to quality.

POTATOES—Peach Blows are steady at $3,25 to $3,50, and Buckeyes are scarce and in demand at $4.25 to $4,50. Jersey Sweets, $8 per bbl.

DRIED FRUIT—Is quiet and unchanged; sales at 7 to 8c for Apples, and 10½ to 11¾c for Peaches.

GRAIN—Winter Wheat is scarce and unchanged at $2,55 for Red, and 5 to 8c higher for White, as to quality. Oats scarce and firm; sale of 1 car load to a feeder at 77½c, and small sales in store at 79 to 80. Corn is dull, with sales of Ear, on wharf, at 90 to 95c. Rye, $1,75 to $1,80. HAY—Weighmaster McNulty, at the Allegheny Diamond Scales, reports 73 loads of Hay at $17 to $28, and 18 loads of Straw at $15 to $19.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm, with a continued good jobbing demand at 13c for Shoulders; 15 to 17c for Ribbed and Clear Sides, and 18 to 19c for Plain Sugar Cured Hams. Lard, 16½c, in tierces, and 17c, in kegs. Mess Pork, $26,50.

LARD OIL—Is firm but unchanged; regular sales at $1,10 for No. 2, and $1,35 for No. 1.

BUTTER—Is in good supply and dull, with a drooping tendency; we now quote at 45 to 48c, for prime to choice Roll.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

Home for Working Women—The Gospel Afloat—The Chamber of Commerce—Base Ball—Racing News—Miscellaneous Items.

[Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 4, 1868.

The boarders at the Working Women's Home gave a reception on Thursday evening to their family friends and those of the Institution. It was largely attended. There are now one hundred and fifty boarders in the building, which is quite a goodly number, considering the brief time the Home has been established. It will, however, accommodate five hundred. A library, comfortable dormitories, parlors and bath rooms, and good board and washing are furnished, and the inmates can have the freedom and comforts of a well regulated family, where the costs are such as may be met by the humblest, toiling woman. This Home was organized as an experiment, and bids fairly for success.

The semi-centennial anniversary of the New York Port Society for Promoting the Gospel among Seamen was held recently. In the address of the Hon. W. E. Dodge, the Chamber of Commerce was complimented in its consideration of a plan for founding a Normal School for the education of Sailors. Such a school is needed here, and under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce could hardly fail of a great success. The sailor boy in such a school as the one proposed could be educated to the full duties of a ship commander. The importance of this project will immediately be recognized, when it is considered how large a number of sailors find homes for their families in this city.

The centennial celebration of the organization of the New York Chamber of Commerce will take place on Monday evening next, when addresses will be made by the President, and by Messrs. Dow, Opdyke, Grinnell and Jonathan Sturgis. A sketch of the history of the Chamber will be read by the Secretary. Invitations to be present have been extended to members of the learned professions and to the heads of the departments of the State and city.

The Union Base Ball Club of Morrisiana—the champion of the United States—opened the season on their ground at Melrose on Wednesday, with a game between themselves and the best field party which could be made up from the spectators. The odds of five outs was given the field party and even then they were whipped. In a few days the innumerable hosts of base ballists will be in the midst of games.

At a recent meeting of the American Jockey Club, measures were taken for the establishment of "subscription-rooms," the entrance fee to which shall be from $10 to $20, and where a match book shall be kept for the registration of all racing bets. These will be known as "The American Tattersall's Subscription Rooms," and will be governed by nearly the same rules as those enforced in the rooms of the Messrs. Tattersall, in London. Pool selling is not to be allowed here. At the next meeting of the Club the question comes up as to whether pool selling is to be again allowed in Jerome Park. It is to be hoped that this swindling pool selling system may be abolished altogether. The Jockey Club will have their headquarters in these subscription rooms.

The anniversary of the fall of Richmond was duly celebrated last evening, at Steinway Hall, by Post Sedgwick, No. 11, Grand Army of the Republic. The audience was very large. Miss Clara Barton delivered her lecture on the "Work and Incidents of Army Lite." General Rush C. Hawkins made an address. The music was very fine.

After public decency had been outraged for many months by the display and sale upon our streets of licentious illustrated papers, and the patience of good citizens had become well nigh exhausted at the criminal tolerance of the authorities with regard to these vile sheets, it is most gratifying to be able to chronicle the fact that yesterday the Superintendent of the Police issued orders for the seizure of all copies of the Illustrated Police News wherever exposed for sale. The wholesale dealers, hearing of this order, declined to sell any copies to the news men, and sent the edition back to Boston. This is well, but the authorities should not stop with the licentious press of the hub. Among the vilest of the vile papers are those published in this city, and daily exposed upon our streets.

LETTER FROM ST. LOUIS.

Growth of the City—What is Needed—An Item for Water Street.

ST. LOUIS, March 31. 1868.

DEAR GAZETTE.—With the genial weather of the past few days, trade has looked up, merchants' look happy, and the wharf is lined with steamers filled with merchandise. This beautiful and solid city is awaking from the deathly lethargy of slavery, and breaking the bonds with which its trade was fettered in the years of martial law. To quote from the Demovrat (a good radical sheet and the liveliest business paper here,) in a recent trade editorial: "She realizes the existence of a village on Lake Michigan, of the liveliest and trickiest, called Chicago, and (retaining all the old sterling honor, for which St. Louis is famous commercially) is learning lessons in trade."

To be sure she has a good deal to learn. It costs about fifty dollars (in the way of commissions, &c.) more to sell a car load of wheat in St. Louis than in Chicago. To go from here to any upper Mississippi point by rail, you must take Chicago in your route; the only Telegraph Company here (the Western Union) charges four times as much from St. Louis to Pittsburgh as we pay from Pittsburgh to New York. But this is passing away. St. Louis no longer relies inertly and lazily upon her unparalleled natural advantages as of yore, but is using railroads, elevators and all the newest appliances of trade freely, and the day dawns when, with the new bridge, a network of railways through the Valley of the Father of Waters, and more telegraph facilities, she will take her proud place in the van of improvement's march, completely divested of the fogyism which now so plaintively recalls my memories of Pittsburgh, Queen of fogy cities. Already direct importations of foreign commodities, via New Orleans, are largely resumed; cargoes of wheat are billed through to Liverpool, as well as thousands of tons of pig iron and similar staples.

Tell Water street that Wheeling nails are all the go here, the dealers saying that they are better, stronger, smoother and in better kegs than Pittsburgh nails. One Wheeling house sold nearly fifty thousand kegs in this market last year, with a connexion imperfectly established and expects largely to exceed that amount this season. Verbum Sap &c. I see freights from Pittsburgh are down to 18c, I hope the steamboatmen like it—shippers seem to.

Always Yours, CARRX.

A GOOD CEMENT.—Alum and plaster of Paris well mixed with water, and used in a liquid state, will form a very useful cement. It will be found quite handy for many purposes. It forms a very hard composition, and for fixing the brasses, etc., on lamps, nothing could be better.

How to Judge Character by the Hair.

[From the Secrets of Beauty.]

Coarse black hair and dark skin signify great power of character, with a tendency to sensuality. Fine hair and dark skin indicate strength of character, along with purity and goodness. Stiff, straight black hair and beard indicates a coarse, strong, rigid, straightforward character. Fine dark brown hair signifies the combination of exquisite sensibility with great force of character. Flat, clinging, straight hair, a melancholy but extremely constant character. Harsh, upright hair is the sign of a reticent and sour spirit, a stubborn and harsh character. Coarse red hair and whiskers indicate powerful animal passions, together with a corresponding strength of character. Auburn hair, with florid countenance, denotes the highest order of sentiment and intensity of feeling, purity of character, with the highest capacity for enjoyment or suffering. Straight, even, smoo.h and glossy hair denotes strength, harmony and evenness of character, hearty affections, a clear head and superior talents.

Fine, delicate, supple hair is the mark of a delicate and sensitive temperament, and speaks in favor of the mind and character of the owner. Crisp, curly hair indicates a hasty, somewhat impetuous and rash character. White hair denotes a lymphatic and indolent constitution; and we may add that besides these qualities there are chemical properties resding in the coloring matter of the hair tube which undoubtedly have some effect upon the disposition. Thus red haired people are notoriously passionate. Now, red hair is proved by analysis to contain a large amount of sulphur, and very black is colored with almost pure carbon. The presence of these matters in the blood points to peculiarities of temperament and feeling, which are almost universally associated with them. The very way in which the hair flows is strongly indicative of the ruling passions and inclinations, and perhaps a clever person could give a shrewd guess at the manner of a man or woman's disposition by only seeing the back of their heads.

A Parisian Romance.

A young married couple in Paris, extremely wealthy and adoring one another, after six months of rapture, found themselves invalids. At first they concealed from each other their sufferings, but their maladies continued to increase. The physician who was called in found that the pauvre et charmante jeune femme had symptoms of phthisis, while the husband suffered from a complication of disorders of the heart and blood. It was a serious matter. The decision was that the climate of the South was necessary for the young wife, and that of a colder climate for the husband. The sun of Nice, orange trees, and the blue Mediterranean for the one, and long journeys through the snowy plains, fiords, and mountains of Norway for the other. Thus spoke the doctor:

At immense expense the spirit of his decree was carried out, while its letter was evaded. Two houses were built in Paris, one of which was a miniature Siberia, full of currents of air, in every respect cold and dry, where, by dint of taking violent exercise in every imaginable way, and hardening his system, the husband endeavored to recover his health, while in the adjacent building everything was warm, luxurious, soothing and tropical This latter was the home of the young wife. The pair were perfectly happy, living, as it were, a thousand miles apart—the one amid his frescoes, representing icebergs and reindeer—the lady in a constant scene of flowers and lemon trees.

It would be pleasant to add that both recovered, but such was unfortunately not the case. This fairy life lasted three years, when the one and the other died. While they lived they were, however, happy.

Kite Flying.

The India correspondent of the London News, speaking of the town of Patna, says:

"Patna is famous for kites. Anybody desirous of making his fortune quickly, should naturalize the Patna kite in England. Every tenth shop in the bazaar is a kite shop, and you would think that the whole population flies kites. With them it is a scientific amusement. The kite is diamond shaped, and light as a feather. It has no tail, and is flown to an almost incredible height with the lightest possible silk cord or thread. This thread is rubbed with pounded glass; and the science of kite flying consists in artfully causing your kite to fall across your antagonist's line, which being so prepared with glass, it cuts like a knife, and then your antagonist's kite flies away, and is lost, and you win the wager dependent on the match."

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Who Got the Carpet?

Yesterday morning Mrs. Mott, on the alley off Fourth street, between Ferry and Market, purchased at McClintock's $20 worth of carpet and oil cloth, which she paid for, and ordered to be sent to her residence. Shortly after she had taken her departure the porter at the store was dispatched with the goods to the place designated. It appears, however, that he made a mistake and left them at a house occupied by a Mrs. Daily and her sister. Mrs. M. waited some time for her goods, but not receiving them returned to the store to know why they had not been sent as ordered. She was informed that they had been sent as ordered, but as she denied receiving them the porter was called and and sent with her to the place the goods had been left. On arriving at Mrs. Daily's, he stated that he had left a package there in mistake, but Mrs. D. said he had done no such thing. He insisted that he had left the goods there, but the lady insisted that he had not, and as she refused to give any information in relation to the package, information was made before the Mayor charging her with larceny. She was arrested and taken to the Mayor's office, but before the case was called up for a hearing the prosecutor relented and withdrew the information. The porter, however, insists that the package containing the carpet and oil-cloth was left at her house, which she stoutly denies, and so the matter remains. Somebody has $20 worth of goods for which McClintock & Co. did not get paid. Who received them?

A Cool Proceeding.

John Cool yesterday made information before the Mayor, charging Luke Davis with larceny. The parties were employed by Street Commissioner Hunter and yesterday the City Controller was issuing warrants to the city employes on the Treasurer for their pay. John Cool's name was called and it is alleged that Davis answered to it, stepped up to receive a warrant drawn in Cool's favor for $14,75, which he took to the Treasurer's office, and after endorsing it "John Cool per Davis," drew the amount for which it was drawn and departed. A short time afterward Cool made his appearance at the Controller's office, and made inquiry concerning his pay, when he was informed that a warrant for the amount had been issued and delivered to some one supposed to be Cool, but if he was that individual there must be some mistake, as he was not the man who got the warrant. A visit to the Treasurer's office developed the fact that Davis had personated Cool, at the Controller's office and had drawn the money as above stated. Davis was arrested and locked up for a hearing to-day. It is, in addition to being a very cool proceeding on the part of Davis, a rather peculiar case of larceny.

Committed.

Mrs. Eliza Sutton made information before Mayor Drum, Monday evening, charging her husband Elijah Sutton, with assault and battery. The couple occupy a small boat, fitted up as a house, which is stranded on the bank of the Ohio river, near Woods Run. On last Thursday the wife stated her husband was drinking very freely, and when he came to his boat house he was very quarrelsome. She endeavored to quiet him, when he assaulted her, knocking her down and kicking her. Some persons, passing in the vicinity, went to her assistance, and to this, she alleges, she owes her life. She was still suffering yesterday from the injuries received, and was hardly able to reach the office. Sutton was arrested, and after a hearing, was committed in default of bail for his appearance at Court.

The Tobacco Dealers in Allegheny.

The authorities of Allegheny, it appears, are fully determined to have tobacco and cigar shops closed on Sundays, and it is also the intention of Mayor Drum, we learn, to stop the sale of those articles throughout the city on the Sabbath day. On information received from various sources, John Schultheiser, on East street, Fred. Herdenecker, corner of Third and West streets, August Becker, Valentine Dunhard and R. Holman, Chestnut street, were arrested yesterday by the Mayor's police, charged with having kept their shops open and sold tobacco and cigars on Sunday last. They were each fined $25 and costs.

Arrested by a Woman.

Yesterday evening William McGee, who resides near Dixmont, went into Fred. Schultz's saloon, in the Diamond, Allegheny, yesterday afternoon, and, being slightly intoxicated, became disorderly. Mrs. Schultz, who was the only person in the saloon, besides himself, ordered him out. He refused to go, however, when she deliberately walked from behind the counter, opened the door, put him out, and, seeing a police officer on the opposite side of the street, shoved him across and delivered him over to the officer, who conducted him to the Mayor's office, where he was fined five dollars and discharged.

Allegheny Temperance League.

A meeting of the Allegheny Temperance League was held last evening in the First Presbyterian Church, Allegheny, Dr. A. K. Bell, presiding. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. A. Millingar, after which Rev. E. E. Swift addressed the meeting. Subject—"What are the specific duties of the church in regard to the temperance reform, and how may she best promote it."

The meeting closed with benediction by Rev. J. B. Clark. Rev. J. Kerr will address the League Tuesday evening, 21st inst.

A Disgraceful Scene.—Between ten and eleven oclock last night a disgraceful row occurred at Lige Hall's saloon, in which he and his brother George were the principal actors. Lige was armed with a hammer, while his affectionate (?) brother carried a heavy club used for springing bungs out of whiskey barrels, with which they battered each other in a beastly manner. After a considerable time a force of the night police was collected and the affray stopped. Neither of the parties were arrested. We were unable to learn the origin of the row, but it is probable that bad whiskey was the instigation of it.

Robbery at the Scott House.—The room of Mr. W. F. Sweltney, a boarder at the Scott House, was entered Monday night by some sneak thief and a suit of clothes worth forty-one dollars, a silver watch valued at thirty-five dollars, a pocket book containing fifteen dollars, a pair of sleeve buttons of the value of ten dollars, and a pair of calf skin boots worth eight dollars, carried away. The thief gained admission through the rear of the house. A colored man was arrested on suspicion, and taken before the Mayor, who held him for a hearing.

The Rioters.—John Kline, who was arrested on Monday on suspicion of having been connected with the coal miners' riot at O'Neil's coal works, after a hearing before the Mayor yesterday was discharged. Officers Noble and Wilson, yesterday morning, arrested Henry Briggs, at Alliquippa. He is implicated in the riot. After a hearing he was held to bail in the sum of $1,000, in default of which he was committed.

The Society St. Vincent de Paul, St. Paul's Conference for the relief of the poor, acknowledge the receipt of a donation of $430, being the proceeds of the charitable soiree held at Lafayette Hall, February 18th, 1868.

GENTLEMEN—Your very flattering call requesting me to become a candidate for Congress, requires at my hands such weighty reasons as will justify me in declining. I am now engaged, with others, in a public enterprise of great importance to the people of this Congressional district, the successful completion of which will result to the great advantage of Pittsburgh and all Western Pennsylvania, and in order that my attention may in no way be diverted from this important work, I am compelled to decline the honor your partiality would confer, and in so doing, gentlemen, I return to you my sincere and heartfelt acknowledgments for this great mark of your esteem and confidence.

With sentiments of the highest consideration and regard, I remain

Your obedient servant,

WM. PHILLIPS.

PITTSBURGH, April 7th, 1868.

Engineering and Drawing.

Our readers will be gratified to hear that Mr. Perceval Beckett, M. E., has started an Engineering and Drawing office at No. 79 Federal street, Allegheny City. Mr. Beckett has been for a considerable period the Mechanical Engineer at the Allegheny shops of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, and has held similar positions in various parts of this country and Great Britain, and is thoroughly conversant with all branches of his profession. He (having been raised in the South Staffordshire iron and coal district) has had considerable experience in designing and superintending the construction of Blast Furnaces, Rolling Mills, etc. Mr. Beckett's knowledge of high and low pressure engines is considerable; in fact there is very little in the regular routine of his profession but what he is capable of undertaking. Now that our coal proprietors are turning their attention to locomotives as the means of hauling their black diamonds from the mines, we recommend them to consult Mr. Beckett in such matters, as he intends to make colliery locomotives a specialty. Mr. Beckett has written several scientific articles for this and various other papers, and is well known to be a thoroughly practical as well as scientific man. We recommend Mr. Beckett to the public generally, for we feel assured that all who may have occasion to consult him in any of the branches of Mechanical Engineering will find him perfectly competent for their requirements, as there is no doubt of his being a perfect master of his profession. By earnest request he will also turn his attention to the patent business, which news will be welcomed by our local inventors, since Mr. Beckett has a branch office in Washington City, so that all such business will be promptly attended to. See advertisement in another column.

Larceny by Bailee.—William Batie made information before Alderman Mullin, charging John Shingles with larceny by bailee. He alleges that he gave to Shingles sixteen dollars to be paid to Jas. McElroy, which sum the accused appropriated to his own use. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Taken Over.—John Fisher, the colored man convicted of a felonious assault on the Gubly brothers in Allegheny City, and sentenced to two years imprisonment, was taken to the Penitentiary yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriff Cluley.

Chronic Diseases.

Go where you will, in the city or in the country, among the rich or the poor; you will find many persons, male and female, laboring under some chronic affection, which has baffled the skill of their physician.

This is true not only of Chronic Liver Complaint, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Kidney Affections, and the many complaints arising from diseases of the urinary organs, Dropsy, Gravel, Gout, &c.,—but its particularly true of that class denominated "Female Diseases," the very frequency and extent of which is good evidence that their true character is not properly understood, or the common treatment has not met with success.

It is in Chronic Diseases more than any other that an examination of the urine is necessary to a correct diagnosis.

All Female Diseases do not arise from the same cause; nor does the same cause always produce the same symptoms. All Urinary difficulties do not arise from Gravel, nor do all indications of Gravel arise from Affection of the Kidneys; and it is by an examination of the urine alone that these facts are many times to be verified.

In short, there is scarcely a chronic disease afflicting the human body but what its true character can be definitely determined by analytic and microscopic examination of the urinary secretion; thus avoiding in hundreds of cases the diagnostic uncertainties which lead to these failures in treatment, and doing away, in nearly all Female Diseases, with the needless exposure to indelicate examinations.

The man who has done more, in a practical sense, in establishing these facts, than any other, is Prof. Oldshue, of Pittsburgh.

From close attention, and long and patient investigation, he has learned to know the precise nature of all these affections, and has found out exactly the kind of medicines to be used in each case.

His charge for examination, prescriptions and medicines furnished, range from three to ten dollars.

For the Ladies Alone—A Fashionable Millinery Opening.

It is seldom that we have an opportunity to gossip with the ladies on fashionable topics, but we feel that we should fail to fully discharge our duties did we not inform them of the grand fashionable opening of millinery and furnishing goods which is to take place to-morrow, at the well
